OUR HEROES 2015

On November 20 2015 to December 07, 2015 45 photos from the OUR HEROES 2015 collection will be on display at the Metropolitan Community Church 474 Ridge Street NW Washington, DC.

The complete collection of the Our Heroes exhibit includes 250 black and white portrait photographs of individuals, places, events and organizations whom have made an impact in the war against AIDS in Washington, DC over the past 32 years (1981 – 2014) and is a part of the permanent collection at the Martin Luther King Memorial Library in Washington, DC.

Their portrait photograph and story will help archive the history of AIDS and its impact in Washington, DC, our nation’s capital. Their portrait photograph and stories will also share with the world our journey and heroism in the fight against HIV and AIDS in your life and the lives of others.

This collection was first displayed at the Wilson Building in 2006 with first 50 photographs and it was displayed at the MLK Library on December 2,2013 to January 05,2014 as well at the United States Conference on AIDS in 2015 with a special issue from the Washington Blade!

OUR HEROES EXHIBIT is the largest exhibit of its kind in the United States!

Sincerely,
